"THE EARLY AMERICAN CENTS ARE AN INTRIGUING FAMILY AND THEY NEVER DIE, FADE OR GET BROKEN. LIKE GOOD JEWELRY THEY SEEM TO TRANSCEND HUMAN MORTALITY AND TO GROW RICHER WITH AGE. THERE IS A TIME-BINDING QUALITY AND A SENSE OF INTRINSIC FULL VALUE OR FULL INTEGRITY IN AN EARLY COPPER CENT."

– Dr. William H. Sheldon

Tradition

Founded in 1967, Early American Coppers is recognized as one of the premier numismatic specialty organizations in the world. We remember what numismatics was like when scholarship and an appreciation for history were more important than "What's it worth?" We welcome beginners and experienced collectors who share our appreciation for the cents and half cents of the Mint's formative years, and the colonial issues before that, through the change to small cents in 1857.
